

D-TARAXIA

At D-TARAXIA, we believe that dance is more than just movement, it's a vibrant expression of creativity, culture and community. Whether you are a seasoned dancer or someone looking to explore a new passion, our club offers a welcoming space for everyone to share in the joy of dance.

Events /Activities

- Ganesh Chaturthi & Navaratri Garba

Introductory sessions

A workshop will be held to prepare participants for the Ganesh Chaturthi event & Navaratri Event, focusing on traditional dance forms like: Garaba, Lavni, Gondhal, and classical performances, ensuring everyone is well-prepared to contribute to the celebration

- Tantrafiesta

The opening ceremony of TantraFesta will commence with a Classical Vandana, a revered and time-honored tradition in Indian performing arts. The Vandana can be dedicated to deities like Saraswati, the Goddess of Knowledge, Shiva, the Lord of Dance (Nataraja) or Ganesha, the remover of obstacles and the god of beginnings. Each deity's Vandana has its unique significance and traditional compositions that bring spiritual energy to the performance.

- Abhivyakti

To prepare and train students across various dance categories such as solo, duet and group ensuring they are ready to showcase their best performances at the Abhivyakti. Our goal is to develop their skills, boost their confidence, and help them deliver impactful performances that highlight their creativity and technical abilities.

- Workshops

Periodic workshops with instructors specializing in different dance forms to enhance versatility and introduce new techniques. A workshop will be organized to train first-year students for Naatyaaksh, focusing on integrating dance and drama under the mentorship of senior club members, ensuring they are equipped with the necessary skills for the event.

- Naatyaaksh:

It's a collaboration between D-Taraxia and Estoria. The objective of Naatyaaksh is to empower first-year students by giving them the opportunity to organize and lead a major event. Under the mentorship of experienced club leads and co-leads, they will learn the intricacies of event management, choreography, and performance, while showcasing their talents to the wider community.
